

Dialectical Journal Entry Rubric:

CATEGORY	95 or higher	90-94	80-89	70 or below
Quote Choice	The entry contains the entire quote directly from the chapter with a page number.	The entry contains the entire quote directly from the chapter, but does not include a page number.	The entry contains pieces of a quote from the chapter, but it is incomplete or unclear.	The entry does not include a quote from the chapter.
Reflection Quality	Thoughts on or analysis of the quote adds something new to the conversation or connects this quote to another quote in a creative way.	Thoughts on or analysis of the quote demonstrates some reflection, but does not add something new or creative to the conversation.	The response generally summarizes the quote, but does not include any analysis or reflection.	The response is either omitted entirely or says essentially nothing that relates to the book or the quote in any way.
Reflection Word Count	The reflection is 150 words or more.	The reflection falls between 100-149 words.	The reflection calls between 50-100 words.	There is no reflection or the reflection is 49 words or fewer.

Response to Someone Else's Entry Rubric:

CATEGORY	95 or higher	90-94	80-89	79 or below
Level of Interaction	The response demonstrates that you have read the original quote and reflection and are contributing to the original poster's train of thought in a creative way.	The response demonstrates that you have read the original quote and entry, but it doesn't say anything that wasn't already said in the original post.	The response doesn't seem to relate to the original post in any way.	There is no response or the response is incoherent.
New Rubric Row	The response is 150 words or more. OR The response includes a link to multimedia information (image, video, song, news article etc.) and includes at least 50 words explaining the connection between the original post and the multimedia content.	The response falls between 100-149 words.	The response falls between 50-99 words and does not include any multimedia content.	The response is fewer than 49 words, only includes a piece of multimedia with no explanation, OR there is no response.